YOUR VOICE MATTERS

Camden Council, in partnership with The Children's Society, is in the process of writing a new strategy for young people who have extra responsibilities at home looking after family members.

We can't write this strategy without involving young people.

Are you interested in helping us inform and shape this important piece of work?

Text or use the QR codes on the flier to sign up for one of our workshops [3hours long] or a 1-2-1 conversation [approx. 1hour].

Our offer

- help to write an important strategy that will have an impact on many young people in your borough
- meet other, like minded young people
- engage in conversations and activities
- meet at a time that suits you and your responsibilities [for a 1-2-1 chat]
- have food, snacks and drinks on us
- travel will be covered
- receive a shopping voucher as a little "Thank you"
